REDS TAKE SECOND GAME.

There were some 500 spell-bound and anxious rooters at League Park to see the third game played between the Reds and the Senators. It was one of the prettiest games that have been seen in Norfolk this season. It was a pitcher's battle all the way through, but Steward, of the Reds, has better control of the ball than his opponent. The same clubs play again to-day, game called at 3:30 p. m., on account of the Shamrocks having to catch the boat for home. The following tells the score by Innings:

THE ATLANTIC LEAGUE.

PENNANT WILL GO TO RICHMOND CLUB.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Philadelphia, Pa., July 5.—The disbanding of the Scranton baseball club necessarily forces a revision of the schedule of the circuit of the Atlantic League. President Barrow to-night issued a call for a meeting of the league to be held at the Hotel Hanover, this city, on Friday next.

At this meeting the championship pennant will be declared closed and the pennant will be awarded to the Richmond club, that club now having a commanding lead in the percentage of victories. A new schedule will be prepared for a second championship season with a circuit of six clubs.

President Barrow said to-night that he was unable to state just what club will be in the new circuit. This matter, he said, will be determined at Friday's meeting.

PLACES FOR RELEASED PLAYERS.

Scranton, Pa., July 5.—The sudden demise of the Scranton Ball Club, and the unconditional release of the players resulted in a flood of telegrams from all points of the compass to-day, offering places to the best men of the team. Irwin landed Pitcher Kennan for Washington, Tebeau, of St. Louis, has first call on Pitcher Hodson; Captain Doherty, third baseman, is slated for Allentown; Left Fielder Eagan is drifting with Worcester, Providence and Uica; Catcher O'Neill goes to Toronto, and Pitcher Riley's terms are being considered by Pittsburg, Massey and Householder, who were traded by Buffalo last week for Dillon and Lippert, are out of a job.

GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

ONE WESTERN MAN REMAINS TO BATTLE FOR IT.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Onwentsia Club Grounds, Lake Forest, Ill., July 5.—Only one Western man now remains to battle for the amateur golf championship in the tournament at Onwentsia. To-day's game saw the downfall of four out of five Westerners, who were successful in yesterday's match games. Walter Fairbanks, of the Overland Park Club, of Denver, was vanquished by H. P. Toler, of the Baltusrol Golf Club; D. R. Forgan went down before Champion Findlay S. Douglass; William Holabird, Jr., the 16-year-old player of the Glenview Golf Club, of Chicago, was beaten by another Westerner, C. B. McDonald, of the Chicago Golf Club, while Walter B. Smith, of the Onwentsia Club, runner-up in last year's tournament at the Morris county course, was defeated after a hard struggle, by J. G. Thorp, of the Oakley Country Club, of Cambridge, Mass.

The playing of Mr. Douglass was pre-eminently the feature of the day. He defeated his opponent, D. R. Forgan, the Onwentsia captain, with ridiculous ease, and in doing so establish a new competition record for the long Onwentsia course, going out in forty and returning in forty, a total of eighty for the eighteen holes. The performance was by far the best of the season, and the form displayed by the champion was so superior to that shown by the other contestants that his final victory is regarded by many as a foregone conclusion. Forgan's playing was good, but he was so far outclassed that the score became one sided.

The biggest surprise of the day was the defeat of Walter B. Smith, last year's runner up, by J. G. Thorp, who was runner up against Whigham at Shinnecock Hills in 1896, and has displayed particularly good form during the tournament.

Judging from the attendance at the play during the afternoon it is probable that to-morrow's play will be followed by more lovers of the game than at any time during the tournament.

The rain ceased this afternoon and the sun and wind quickly dried up the course, leaving it in splendid condition for to-morrow.

the streets leading to the portal of the prison.

THE KODAC FIEND.

Just opposite the prison and overlooking the window of the cell of Captain Dreyfus and the court yard, is a tannery. This has been a favorite place of vantage for a number of photographers, who have taken snap shots of every arrival and departure and as often as possible of the incidents occurring inside the prison yard.

To-day the police affixed a notice over the tannery entrance, prohibiting the entry of any one except on business connected with the tannery. This measure has aroused considerable comment, but the owner of the tannery will probably find it prudent not to ignore the notice.

Maitre Labori, Matthieu Dreyfus and Mme. Dreyfus returned to Paris this evening.

ALLEGED HANDWRITING EXPERT.

Paris, July 5.—The Municipal Council of Paris adopted an order to-day urging the prefect of police, M. Lemoine, to dismiss M. Bortolotti from the directorship of the Anthropometric department on account of the mistakes in his evidence as a handwriting expert in the Dreyfus case, before the court martial and during the revision proceedings before the Court of Cassation, when he gave the reasons which led him to regard Dreyfus as the author of the bordereau.

WHAT OTIS THINKS.

OF NEGOTIATIONS FOR RELEASE OF SPANISH PRISONERS.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, D. C., July 5.—The War Department has received from General Otis advice relative to the negotiations proceeding in Luzon between the Spanish Commissioners and Aguinaldo, looking to the release of the Spanish prisoners. General Otis' report indicates that there is a fair prospect these unfortunate will be set free, if not all of them, then certainly a large number.

It is not known whether or not the captives of the Yorktown's crew are to be included in the prisoners to be released, but it is feared that owing to their different status they will be held by the insurgents.

BARCELONA RIOTS.

MANY CONFLICTS AND MANY PEOPLE WOUNDED.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Barcelona, July 5.—There was a renewal of the disorders here last night. Bands of rioters attacked the church of Santa Mirona and the Jesuit school. The police charged and the mob pelleted them with stones. Later the police were reinforced by mounted gendarmes and infantry and finally scattered the mob.

Many conflicts took place and many people were wounded.

The theaters are closed.

ENGLISH TROOPS READY.

TO MOVE ON SOUTH AFRICA WHENEVER NECESSARY.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

London, July 5.—The Pall-Mall Gazette this afternoon says the Secretary for War, the Marquis of Lansdowne, in conjunction with the military chiefs, has completed arrangements to dispatch 4,000 to 5,000 troops of all arms to South Africa in the event of matters taking a turn for the worse. It is added that all the necessary arrangements have been made there for the distribution of the troops on their arrival.

THE WALKER TRIAL.

THE TESTIMONY DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Richmond, Va., July 5.—The trial of General James A. Walker for shooting Lawyer Hamilton, was resumed at Bristol to-day. Congressman-elect Rhea was the first witness for the Commonwealth, and his testimony did not differ materially from that of the prosecution's witnesses who had preceded him. R. J. Sydnor testified that a pistol and a duck were taken off the person of General Walker in the latter's room after the shooting. R. M. Calfee and A. K. Hickman, for the defense, testified that, though present at the time of the shooting, they did not see Walker shoot Hamilton. Hickman said that when Hamilton was shot he had his hand on his hip pocket. Argument will probably begin to-morrow.

MISSED THE AMER.

BUT SHOT GENERAL IN THE SHOULDER.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

London, July 5.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Globe says that advice have been received there from Cabul, capital of Afghanistan, that an Afghan recently discharged a rifle point blank at the Amer but missed him, the bullet lodging in the shoulder of a general standing near by.

The advice also say that the Amer's brother, Ishak Khan, attempted to bribe a cook to poison the Amer and that when the plot was discovered Ishak fled into Russia and the cook was hanged.
